

K-Love which operates as a translator service in Austin is the only source of Contemporary Christian music in our city. It is a beacon of light and hope in the otherwise secular landscape that is FM Broadcasting in Austin. Given the perponderance of music of other genre I believe we need K-LOVE on the air and would ask you to not approve LPFM in our area of Texas.